The major operating division on this matter was the Domestic Intelligence Division headed by Assistant Director William C. Sullivan and number one man Joseph A. Sizoo. Sullivan was later fired and . . . . . [deleted pursuant to (b)(7)(C)]. . . . . Sizoo has retired . . . . . The sections in this division that were involved are the Subversive Control Section, which focused on individual security subjects and the Internal Security Section which focused on organizations and certain key individuals. This section, for example, handled the Smith Act prosecutions. When the bureau first started its coverage of Dr. King, it was handled in Subversive Control; when the investigation was intensified it was transferred to Internal Security. (u)

The Subversive Control Section was headed by James Bland whose number one man was Paul Cox. Both are now retired. The Internal Security Section was headed by Fred J. Baumgardner, assisted first by Dick Corman and later by Charles Brennan. Baumgardner is retired, . . . [deleted pursuant to (b)(7)(C)] . . . . . Corman and Brennan are both retired. Within that section the King case was handled initially by William Forsythe (now deceased) and then continuously by [deleted -(b)(7)(C)] unit chief who is still with the Bureau. (u)

The SCLC was headed by Dr. King. His principal associates in SCLC included Rev. Ralph Abernathy, Congressman Andrew Young and Congressman Walter Fauntroy. [.....(b)(7)(C).....

2) This relates to King & her "principal associates" They are not secret. If it relates to Young, Abernathy or Fauntroy it is highly unlikely that anything about them specifically w/in (b)(7)(C) would be appropriate here & fit. This is open. What is possible is that there are FBI informants in SCLC Hq & name. The proper exemption in that event would not seem to be (b)(7)(C)
